NAACP DeKalb Celebrates its 66th Anniversary

Decatur, GA. The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) DeKalb County Branch celebrates its 66th Anniversary at the monthly General Membership Meeting on Saturday, May 22, 2021 at 10:00 AM via Zoom.

During the meeting, the members will hear from Leon Russell, Chair of the National NAACP Board of Directors; Rev. James Woodall, Georgia NAACP State President; and Edward Dubose, NAACP National Board Member.

On that same day, we continue the celebration with the NAACP DeKalb Youth Council. They will continue the “Anger to Action” Empowerment Series on May 22, 2021 at 2:00 PM featuring Rev. Dr. William Barber, II

The ceremony will end on Sunday, May 23, 2021 at where we will award 23 DeKalb County Students who have participate in the NAACP DeKalb ACT-SO 2020-2021 program.

NAACP DeKalb Branch President, Teresa Hardy, states “I am grateful for the progress we have made in our 66 years and even more excited about where the future takes us.”
