NAACP DeKalb “Ask 400 Membership Campaign”

Decatur, GA. The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) DeKalb County Branch continues its “Ask 400 Membership Campaign” through the end of the year. Teresa Hardy, Branch President, states “we want NAACP DeKalb County Branch to be the leader for the state of Georgia in getting the most memberships for the largest civil rights organization in the world”.

Thele Moore, Membership Chair, states “this campaign will help mobilize our community to advocate for social justice initiatives.” In this campaign, active and new members will have a chance to win great prizes and membership perks.

To participate in the ASK 400 Membership Campaign, go to our website at www.naacpdekalb.org and click “Get Membership”. For more information contact the branch at (404) 241-8006 or info@naacpdekalb.org.
