NAACP DeKalb Youth Council Meeting “Raising Up a New Generation of Leaders”

Decatur, GA. The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) DeKalb County Branch will host its virtual Youth Council Meeting on February 20, 2021 at 2:00 pm. The Youth Council will meet to plan their annual activities, elect officers and receive their Black History Program assignments. The Youth Council is excited to have guest speaker, Temple Lester, a 13-year-old creator of “STEM Girl Swag”. STEM entrepreneur. Her goal is to encourage more of her peers to take an interest in science, especially girls.

We encourage youth to register and become trained leaders to enhance the betterment of the community. Youth Council Chair Lance Hammonds states “Youth should not be passive participants in the conversations about their future. They should be active in creating their future”.

Youth who attend the meeting on February 20, 2021 will participate in the NAACP DeKalb Black History Program on February 27, 2021 at 10:00 am. Teresa Hardy, President of the NAACP DeKalb Branch states, “It is important now that we raise up a new generation of leaders, so they know and understand how they play a vital role in the advancement of their community.”

This event is FREE. You can register at www.naacpDeKalb.org to attend via zoom using Meeting ID: 823 4813 9660. For more information contact the Youth Council Chair, Lance Hammonds, at (404) 241-8006 or info@naacpDeKalb.org.
