NAACP DeKalb Hosts Inaugural Golf and Tennis Tournament

Decatur, GA. The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) DeKalb County Branch will host its Inaugural FORE the LOVE Golf and Tennis Tournament on Friday, September 10th, 2021, at 8:00 am, at the Sugar Creek Golf and Tennis Club. Event proceeds support NAACP DeKalb's Youth Council as they focus on issues facing youths throughout the nation, such as social justice, activism, voting rights and education.

Thele Moore, Membership Chair states, "I am an avid tennis player who LOVES to SERVE her community, and I look forward to supporting our Youth Council. Our youth is our future!"

Participation in this event will include a NAACP DeKalb membership, golf green fee and/or tennis court fee, swag bag, breakfast, and an awards banquet.

President Teresa Hardy states, "We are excited to host this inaugural Golf and Tennis Tournament to support our youth. As they are being educated on racial injustices, we believe they deserve our support as they determine how to put an end to unnecessary hatred behavior."

To register for this event, become a sponsor or donate, go to our website at www.naacpddekalb.org. For more information contact Thele Moore, Membership Chair, at info@naacpddekalb.org or (404) 241-8006.
